

CADGWITH ANTHEM

come hush fill up your glasses and let us be merry for to hush hush in the distance there's foot steps a-pproach ing

D A7 D

rob banks and plun der it is our in tent as we roamed through the stand and de liv er it is our watch cry

A7 D A7

va lley where the li lies and the ros es and the beau ty of kash mir lay

D7 G D

doo ping his head then a way then a way then a way

A7 D A7 D G

to the caves in yonder mountains where the ro bbers re treat

D A7

THREE DRUNKEN MAIDENS

4

1

G C G D7

There were three drun - ken mai - dens lived on the Isle of
In comes their sis - ter her face as red's a
Those four drun - ken mai - dens stood up and sang a
In comes the Land lord he says you'll have to Where are your coats and your - dres - ses all so

G C G D7

wight They went for a drink on Mon - day they stayed til Satur - day broom She says move up my sis - ters and give young Sally some song a - bout the girls from Amster dan who could not do no pay fine thats we fif - teen quid you owe me pay up and be on your fine we left them in the ale house to ship on more good

G D7 G

night Her Satur - day night came round me boys and still they didnt ocme room If sis - ters they did all move up and for more ale di wrong They an - y - bo - dy did com - plain then they did all way wine They did not have no mo - ney and for more ale did wine where are your mai - den heads you girls so young and

D G C G D7

out And those three drun - ken mai - dens they pushed the jug a - bout shout shout shout we left them in the ale house we drank them clean a - way shout fine