

POPSICLE TOES

Words and Music by MICHAEL FRANKS

Moderately (♩ = ♩³)

No chord

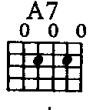

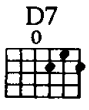

when God gave out rhy - thm, He sure was good to you. — You can add, — been Miss Penn-syl - va - nia with all this pul-chri-tude. — How come you nic - est North A - mer-i-ca this sail - or ev - er saw. — I like to — sub - tract, — mul - ti - ply — and di - vide — by two. — al - ways load — your Pen - tax when I'm in — the nude? — feel your warm — Bra - zil and touch — your Pan - a - ma. —

— I know to - day's — your birth - day, and I did —
 We ought to have a birth - day par - ty, and you can —
 But your Ti - er - ra del — Fu - e - gos are near -

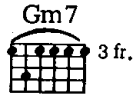

— not buy — no rose. — But I wrote — this song in - stead, — wear your birth - day clothes. — Then we can hit the floor and go — ly al - ways froze. — We got - ta see - saw un - til we —

— and I call it "Pop - si - cle Toes." —
 — ex - plore those Pop - si - cle Toes. —
 — un - thaw those Pop - si - cle Toes. —

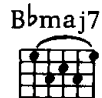

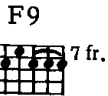

Pop - si - cle Toes, _____

Pop - si - cle Toes _____ are al-ways froze. _____

Pop - si - cle Toes, _____

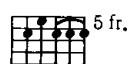

you're so brave _____

Bbm7

Eb9

Abm7

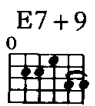

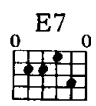

to ex - pose all those Pop - si - cle Toes..

Db9

N.C.

1.

2.

3.

N.C.

D. S. f and fade

You must have

You got the